

Rules of Conduct

King County Youth Services Center

Youth, families and public entering the Youth Services Center are welcome to quietly wait in the lobby at juvenile court. People who disrupt a court proceeding in any way will be removed from the courthouse.

Please follow these rules while at the Youth Services Center:

No Weapons -- no exceptions (unless you are a commissioned law enforcement officer on official business)

No Fighting or Abusive or Harassing Behavior

No Alcohol or Illegal Substances

No Smoking -- except in designated areas outside of the building

No Littering, Creating Unsanitary Conditions, Defacing or Damaging Property

No Disruptive Behavior, including loud noises, music, and shouting

If you violate these rules, you will be asked to stop and may be arrested or directed to leave the premises. If asked to leave and you refuse, you may be arrested for criminal trespass or other criminal charges
